

Report

Contribution to Local Community

Banasthali Vidyapith

PO Banasthali Vidyapith (Rajasthan)

Pin Code- 304022

Name of Initiative: Financial Awareness Programme at Talav Colony

Date: 22 July 2018

Report:

The Faculty of Management Studies organized a financial awareness programme in Talav Colony Village on 22nd July 2018 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Tree Plantation in Banasthali Village

Date: 23 August 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith always believes in the fact that a culture is the expression of nature and therefore it always establishes a profound relationship between nature and culture. Further it does not promote any cultural activities which damages nature. Keeping that in mind, Vidyapith ventured into the activity of tree plantation in Banasthali Village on 23rd August 2018. Approximately 50 students from Vidyapith participated in programme and planted 100 saplings. They were planted with an objective to create environment sustainability and protection. The students of Vidyapith also informed villagers that tree plantation is the need of hour and therefore they must be planted in a great number so that environment can be preserved and diseases of global warming can easily be fought.

Name of Initiative: Door to Door Awareness on Financial Literacy in Deepali ki Dhani

Village

Date: 5 August 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a financial Literacy Programme in Deepali ki Dhaani Village on 5th August 2018 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed. Some faculty members along with some students went door to door in Deepali Ki Dhani for making the people of village aware about the need of financial independence in their life. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Financial Awareness Programme at Lodha ki Dhanni Village

Date: 1 September 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a financial Literacy Programme in Lodha ki Dhaani on 1st September 2018 in which some important ideas on of financial literacy were discussed and villagers were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Some faculty members along with some students went to Lodha Ki Dhani village for making the people of village aware about the need of financial independence in their life. Further, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days.

Name of Initiative: Door to Door Awareness on Digital Literacy

Date: 9 September 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a door to door Awareness programme on Digital literacy and was organized at Banasthali Village on 9th September 2018 in order to make the villagers aware about the growth and development in digital technology in the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age. The door to door awareness programme educated the people of the village about the use and misuse of digital technology. They were also cautioned to use the technology very carefully so that they may be able to avoid the possibility of fraud, cheating and reception.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session in Banasthali Village

Date: 22 September 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on Digital literacy, on 22nd September 2018 in order to make the villagers aware about the growth and development in digital technology in the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: An Informal Discussion on Child Labour

Date: 28 September 2018

Report:

An Informal discussion was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith on 28th September 2018. The discussion was organized to address an important issue which is quite rampant in the neighboring villages i.e. child labour. The case of child labour is very prominent in the neighboring villages like Banasthali, Hiripura, Motipura, Bhataria, Iodera, Jagatpura, Kishanpura, Daulatpura, Bidoli, Palei, Jujharpura, Trilokpura, Karanpura, Devpura. To address the issue of child labour some important persons from those villages were invited at one place where the ill effects of child labour were discussed. They were encouraged to discourage the practice of child labour in their villages.

Name of Initiative: Swachh Raho Swastha Raho

Date: 5 October 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a campaign on 5th October 2018 in order to address the issue of cleanliness, health and hygiene. Approximately 35 students participated in the programme and cleaned the vicinity and area around Vani Mandir and conveyed a very strong message amongst the members of the staff who come from the neighboring villages that they should focus at their health, cleanliness and hygiene because they are integral to lead a healthy life. Finally the slogan of the programme was Swachh Raho Swastha Raho.

Banasthali Social Media, Banasthali Vidyapith

Name of Initiative: A Workshop on Skill Development Among Women

Date: 5 October 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith has invited women from neighboring villages Banasthali, Hiripura, Motipura, Bhataria, Lodera, Jagatpura, Kishanpura, Daulatpura, Bidoli, Palei, Jujharpura, Trilokpura, Karanpura, Devpura on 5th October 2018 to educate and train them with some basic skills of Cole cutting, tailoring, gardening etc. They were also trained on the basic skills required to be beauticians. In fact, these skills enabled them to earn their bread and butter. Many women on this occasion shared their experiences and articulated that this training has changed their life.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness on Bank ATM in Baad Churiya Village

Date: 18 October 2018

Report:

Some villagers from Baad Churiyaa village were called on 18th October 2018, so that they could be trained and be educated about the use of ATM. One of the faculty member from the department of Management (Finance) educated them on how to use ATM with security code and also shared some basic do's and don'ts with the villagers. After the training, the villagers themselves went to the ATM and used their ATM card so that they may further use it with care and confidence.

Name of Initiative: Apaji Cloth Donation Camp

Date: 21 December 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized Apaji Cloth Donation Camp on 21st Dec, 2018. The camp was organized in Jagatpura Village where some cloths were donated and distributed amongst the poorest of the poor who cannot afford cloths on themselves. The cloths were distributed amongst the children and some helpless women of the village. The cloth donation camp brought some smile on their face.

Name of Initiative: General Health Camp

Date: 21 December 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a general health check up camp on 21st December 2018 at Jagatpura village. In which Dr Neera Singh examined more than 100 villagers. She treated old women, men, young men, children and ladies who are suffering from different types of disease. Some medicine was also distributed among them. Dr. Neera Singh reported that joint pain, hygiene relate disease, fever etc. are found to be very common among villagers. The camp was also supported by some students of Banasthali Vidyapith.

Name of Initiative: Reconstruction of 2 Toilets at Primary School, Jagatpura

Date: 21-23 December 2018

Report:

Defecation in the open has been one of the major causes of several diseases in India. The problem of defecation is found very rampant in India. To make India Healthy it has been very important to stop people from defecating in the open. Keeping this objective in mind, the students of Banasthali Vidyapith undertook an initiative of reconstructing two Toilets at Primary School, Jagatpura. This effort of Vidyapith has been praised by the villagers, teachers and students of Jagatpura Primary school.

Name of Initiative: Eye Checkup Camp

Date: 23 December 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith in association with Raghu Opticals organized an Eye check up camp on 23rd December 2018 at Jeba ki Dhani village. In which Dr RP Gupta examined more than 50 villagers. He treated old women, men, young men, children and ladies who are suffering from different types of eye related disease. Some medicine was also distributed among them. Dr. Gupta reported that 25 villagers got benefited of the camp.

Name of Initiative: Banking Schemes for Villagers

Date: 23 December 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith in association with UCO bank, Banasthali Vidyapith organized an educating and training programme for the villagers of Pelai on 23 December 2018. The educating and training programme was conducted by Mr Sham Pal, UCO Bank who informed villagers regarding their various schemes. For example old age pension scheme, Widow Pension scheme, how to approach sarpanch for the pension etc.

Name of Initiative: Blood Donation Camp

Date: 10 January 2019

Report:

A Blood Donation Camp was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith in association with Apaji Arogya Mandir on 10th January 2019 in which approximately 200 students participated the blood was donated by many students and staff members of Banasthali Vidyapith and the event was successfully concluded.

Name of Initiative: Skit on Save Girl Child at Hingotiya Village

Date: 20 December 2018

Report:

A skit was played by the students of Banasthali Vidyapith at Hingotiya Village on 20th December 2018 to address the problem of reducing the number of girl child. It is an alarming situation that the number of the girl child is increasingly reducing. The skit was performed with a purpose to educate the villagers about the inevitable role that the girl child plays in the growth and development of the society. The skit was highly appreciated by the villagers as it informed them about the role, place and function of the girl child in the society.

Name of Initiative: ATM Usage Awareness in Association with SBI Banasthali

Date: 21 December 2018

Report:

Some people from neighboring villages from were called on 21 December 2018, so that they could be trained and be educated about the use of ATM. The branch Manager of SBI Banasthali Vidyapith educated the villagers on how to use ATM with security code and also shared some basic do's and don'ts with them. After the training, the villagers themselves went to the ATM and used their ATM card so that they may further use it with care and confidence.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session of Financial Literacy at Banasthali

Date: 20 January 2019

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a financial awareness programme on 20th January 2019 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Programme at Jagatpura

Date: 10 February 2019

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education, on 10th February 2019 at Jagatpura Village. The Programme discussed the major concerns of human existence; life, health, disease and education. As the world is changing the importance of these issues has become central. It is often found that people in the village are ignorant of health, problem of disease and the need of education. The awareness programme informed them about how to attain a good health and how to be disease free. The programme also educated them about the need of education for the people and society. The programme further underlined the need of women education and its inevitability in the contemporary world. After the programme, during the discussion session, the villagers expressed their happiness and they acknowledged the fact that they have properly been educated and informed.

Name of Initiative: Food for Poor Children in Jagatpura Village

Date: 1 March 2019

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith has always been taking active part in discharging its duties towards social upliftment and the wellbeing of the people in a society. Banasthali organized a programme entitled food for poor children on 1st March 2019. The programme was organized in Jagatpura village. In which food was served to the poor children who starve and are not able to manage their food for their life. The programme was appreciated by the villagers and those who came to take food in the programme were extremely happy and they expressed their desired to have similar kind of programme time and again.

Name of Initiative: Door to Door Campaign, Banasthali Village

Date: 12 January 2019

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a door to door campaign, on 12th January 2019 at Banasthali village in order to make the villager aware about the need of literacy programme, health, welfare and health education. Some faculty members along with some students went door to door in Deepali Ki Dhani village for making the people of village aware about the need of financial independence in their life. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Training Programme on Khadi Weaving for Rural Women in Khodiya ki Dhani

Date: 3 March 2019

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighboring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women in Khodiya ki Dhani on 3rd March 2019. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: Financial Awareness Programme at Harla Baba ki Dhani

Date: 24 April 2019

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a financial Literacy Programme in Harla Baba ki Dhani village on 24th April 2019 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and villagers were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Tree Plantation in Pelai Village

Date: 27 August 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith always believes in the fact that a culture is the expression of nature and therefore it always establishes a profound relationship between nature and culture. Further it does not promote any cultural activities which damages nature. Keeping that in mind, Vidyapith ventured into the activity of tree plantation in Pelai Village on 27th August 2018. Approximately 50 students from Vidyapith participated in programme and planted 200 saplings. They were planted with an objective to create environment sustainability and protection. The students of Vidyapith also informed villagers that tree plantation is the need of hour and therefore they must be planted in a great number so that environment can be preserved and diseases of global warming can easily be fought.

Name of Initiative: Tree Plantation in Jagatpura Village

Date: 29 August 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith always believes in the fact that a culture is the expression of nature and therefore it always establishes a profound relationship between nature and culture. Further it does not promote any cultural activities which damages nature. Keeping that in mind, Vidyapith ventured into the activity of tree plantation in Jagatpura Village on 29th August 2018. Approximately 55 students from Vidyapith participated in programme and planted 100 saplings. They were planted with an objective to create environment sustainability and protection. The students of Vidyapith also informed villagers that tree plantation is the need of the hour and therefore it must be planted in a great number so that environment can be preserved and diseases of global warming can easily be fought.

Name of Initiative: Tree Plantation in Hingotia Village

Date: 11 September 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith always believes in the fact that a culture is the expression of nature and therefore it always establishes a profound relationship between nature and culture. Further it does not promote any cultural activities which damages nature. Keeping that in mind, Vidyapith ventured into the activity of tree plantation in Hingotiya Village on 11th September 2018. Approximately 40 students from Vidyapith participated in programme and planted 90 saplings. They were planted with an objective to create environment sustainability and protection. The students of Vidyapith also informed villagers that tree plantation is the need of hour and therefore they must be planted in a great number so that environment can be preserved and diseases of global warming can easily be fought.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session in Lakholai

Date: 7 July 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Lakholai villege, on 7th July 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session in Ibrahimipura

Date: 22 July 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education, on 22nd July 2017 at Ibrahimipura village. The Programme discussed the major concerns of human existence; life, health, disease and education. As the world is changing the importance of these issues has become central. It is often found that people in the village are ignorant of health, problem of disease and the need of education. The awareness programme informed them about how to attain a good health and how to be disease free. The programme also educated them about the need of education for the people and society. The programme further underlined the need of women education and its inevitability in the contemporary world. After the programme, during the discussion session, the villagers expressed their happiness and they acknowledged the fact that they have properly been educated and informed.

Name of Initiative: Awareness on Child Marriage among Pilgrims of Dev Narayan ji Mela

Date: 9 August 2017

Report:

Child marriage is commonly found among the villagers. To address this issue Banasthali Vidyapith engaged the pilgrims of the Devnarayan Ji mela and informed them about the negative aspects of child marriage. The programme was organized on 9th August 2017 in which approximately 40 students and some faculty members from Banasthali Vidyapith took active participation. They engaged the pilgrims and informed them about the negative impact of child marriage not only upon the family and the body of men and women but also on the entire eco system of society. This practice does not allow the growth of mature mind set enhance a sound cultural development. The pilgrims were highly benefited and the expressed their thanks to the faculty members and the students for informing them about the negative aspect of child marriage.

Name of Initiative: Swachh Raho Swastha Raho

Date: 14 August 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a campaign on Swachh Raho Swastha Raho on 14th August 2017 in order to address the issue of cleanliness, health and hygiene. Approximately 30 students participated in the programme and cleaned the vicinity and area around Vigyan Mandir and conveyed a very strong message amongst the members of the staff who come from the neighboring villages that they should focus at their health, cleanliness and hygiene because they are integral to lead a healthy life. Finally the slogan of the programme was Swachh Raho Swastha Raho.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes in Harla
Baba ki Dhani Village

Date: 24 August 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes awareness on 24th August 2017 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Awareness on Literacy Day at Handevat Village

Date: 8 September 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized Literacy Day programme on 8th September 2017 at Handevat Village in which some students and faculty member of the department informed the villagers on and about education. They expressed their views in order to inform the villagers that education is the only means which can bring some can positive changes in the life of the people. In the present time, it is imperative to be literate not only to exist in society but also to understand social, political, economic, cultural conditions of the country. The whole programme emphasized on the fact that let everybody be literate so that society can experience some positive changes.

Name of Initiative: Visit to Meet Older Peoples

Date: 1 October 2017

Report:

A society consists of some children, young and some old population. It is often seen that both the children and the young population are embraced whereas the aged population of the society is left alone, neglected and uncared. In the situation the society is left without the vast treasure of knowledge and experience that the old populations contains. Banasthali Vidyapith has always been sensitive to aged population enhance thus whatever little is possible to make them feel integrated with society. To appreciate the contributions that older people make in the making of society, students of Banasthali Vidyapith went to meet the old age people of neighboring villages on 1st October 2017.

Name of Initiative: Cleanliness Campaign in Jagatpura Village

Date: 3 October 2017

Report:

Cleanliness Campaign was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith on 3rd October 2017 in which a great number of students and faculty members participated. Cleanliness is the act of keeping our body, mind, dress, home, surroundings and other work area neat and clean. Cleanliness of the body is very necessary for our physical and mental health. Cleanliness of the surrounding areas and environment is very necessary for the social and intellectual health. Dirty things in the surrounding areas or home give rise to the various disease causing germs, bacteria, virus and fungus. It also improves the confidence level and self-respect as well as respect from others. It is a good habit which keeps us always happy. It makes us feel very proud in the society. Further, is very necessary to maintain our healthy lifestyle and standard of living.

Name of Initiative: Campaign on International Girl Child Day

Date: 11 October 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith is a women's university and therefore it understands the role, power and function of a girl child in a society. On the one hand when there have been several crimes committed against women in order to curbe and to kill them, on the other Banasthali Vidyapith a noble organization which has been catering to need of the society since 1935 and has been nurturing women leaders in all walks of life. With this background, Banasthali organized Campaign on International Girl Child Day on 11th October 2017. In the programme it was reinstated that a girl child is very precious for a society without which world can never be imagined.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session in Yadavon Ki Dhani

Date: 8 November 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Yadavon Ki Dhani, on 8th November 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Door to Door Campaign on Digital Literacy for Rural Women at Jagatpura Village

Date: 20 November 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a programme on Door to Door Campaign on Digital Literacy for Rural Women at Jagatpura Village on 20th November 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the growth and development in digital technology in the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age. The door to door awareness programme educated the people of the village about the use and misuse of digital technology. They were also cautioned to use the technology very carefully so that they may be able to avoid the possibility of fraud, cheating and reception.

Name of Initiative: A Door to Door Campaign for Swachhata in Banasthali Village

Date: 21 December 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a campaign on Swachhata on 21st December 2017 at Banasthali village in order to address the issue of cleanliness, health and hygiene. Approximately 18 students participated in the programme and cleaned the vicinity and area around Vigyan Mandir and conveyed a very strong message amongst the members of the staff who come from the neighboring villages that they should focus at their health, cleanliness and hygiene because they are integral to lead a healthy life. Finally the slogan of the programme was Swachh Raho Swastha Raho.

Name of Initiative: Follow up Session Self Help group at Banasthali

Date: 22 December 2017

Report:

The self help group of Banasthali Vidyapith organized a follow up session on 22nd December 2017 where the benefits of self help group were recounted. The session also highlighted the need and importance of self help group in the present economic condition particularly for the women of the village.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes in Banasthali Village

Date: 20 January 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes awareness programme at Banasthali village on 20th January 2018 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Visit to Gram Panchayat of Hingotia Village for Park Construction

Date: 16 January 2018

Report:

Park has special placed in the eco system of a society where children come to play and old people come to interact and discuss with the people of their age group. Keeping that in mind, Banasthali Vidyapith visited gram panchayat of Hingotia village on 16th January 2018 so that beautiful park can be constructed in the village. The park will be used as a place of social recreation, play and practice. Very interestingly approximately 300 hundred students and some faculty members of the Vidyapith participated in this great event.

Name of Initiative: A session on Financial and Banking Schemes at Haripura Village

Date: 20 February 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Haripura village on 20th February 2018 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Daroga ki Dhani

Date: 7 March 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an General Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Daroga ki Dhani, on 7th March 2018 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes in Jeba ki Dhani

Village

Date: 13 March 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Jeba ki Dhani on 13th March 2017 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes in Bhagwanpura Village

Date 27 April 2018

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Bhagwanpura on 27th April 2018 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Awareness on Child Marriage among Pilgrims of Dev Narayan Ji Mela

Date: 9 August 2016

Report:

Child marriage is commonly found among the villagers. To address this issue Banasthali Vidyapith engaged the pilgrims of the Devnarayan Ji mela and informed them about the negative aspects of child marriage. The programme was organized on 9th August 2017 in which approximately 40 students and some faculty members from Banasthali Vidyapith took active participation. They engaged the pilgrims and informed them about the negative impact of child marriage not only upon the family and the body of men and women but also on the entire eco system of society. This practice does not allow the growth of mature mind set enhance a sound cultural development. The pilgrims were highly benefited and the expressed their thanks to the faculty members and the students for informing them about the negative aspect of child marriage.

Name of Initiative: Awareness on Importance of Literacy at Handevat Village

Date: 8 September 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized Literacy Day programme on 8th September 2016 at Handevat Village in which some students and faculty member of the department informed the villagers on and about education. They expressed their views in order to inform the villagers that education is the only means which can bring some can positive changes in the life of the people. In the present time, it is imperative to be literate not only to exist in society but also to understand social, political, economic, cultural conditions of the country. The whole programme emphasized on the fact that let everybody be literate so that society can experience some positive changes.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Banasthali Village

Date: 9 September 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes awareness programme at Banasthali village on 09th September 2016 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session on Digital Literacy at Palai ki Dhani

Date: 26 September 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a programme on Digital Literacy for Rural Women at Palai ki Dhani on 26th September 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the growth and development in digital technology in the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age. The door to door awareness programme educated the people of the village about the use and misuse of digital technology. They were also cautioned to use the technology very carefully so that they may be able to avoid the possibility of fraud, cheating and reception

Name of Initiative: Blood Donation Camp on Pt Deen Dayal Upaddya Birthday

Date: 27 September 2016

Report:

A Blood Donation Camp was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith in association with Apaji Arogya Mandir on 27th September 2016 in which approximately 200 students participated the blood was donated by many students and staff members of Banasthali Vidyapith and the event was successfully concluded.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Banasthali Vidyapith Hostel- Neelay

Date: 6 October 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an General Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Banassthali Vidyapith , on 6th October 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Higtotiya Village

Date: 7 October 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes awareness programme at Hingotiya village on 07th October 2016 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Damodarpura Village

Date: 20 October 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Damodarpura Village on 20th October 2016 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Surtalya Village

Date: 15 November 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Surtalya Village on 15th November 2016 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness at Ramjipura Village

Date: 15 November 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Ramjipura villege, on 15th November 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Awareness on Demonetization at Banasthali Village

Date: 18 November 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on Demonetization for the peoples of Banasthali village. In this programme students of Vidyapith has been discussed the pros and cons of the demonetization.

Name of Initiative: Awareness Programme for Farmers

Date: 5 December 2016

Report:

Farmers constitute the major population of India but they are always uncared and exploited. Banasthali Vidyapith has been working for the rural reconstruction since its inception. To continue with its objective and vision, Banasthali Vidyapith organized a general programme for farmers on 5 December 2016 where they were informed about different aspects of agricultural and the policies of the government. At the end of session they realized that such awareness programmes are very important for them as they not only educate them but they also informed them about the policies of the government.

Name of Initiative: Workshop on Role of KVK's Research Extension on Farm Management

Date: 7-8 December 2016

Report:

Farmers constitute the major population of India but they are always uncared and exploited. Banasthali Vidyapith has been working for the rural reconstruction since its inception. To continue with its objective and vision, Banasthali Vidyapith organised a general programme for farmers on 7-8 December 2016 where they were informed about different aspects of agricultural and the policies of the government. At the end of session they realised that such awareness programmes are very important for them as they not only educate them but they also informed them about the policies of the government.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Devpura Village

Date: 10 December 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Devpura villege, on 10th December 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Cultural and Legal Issues Surrounding Youth

Date: 12 December 2016

Report: An awareness programme was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith for the boys and girls from neighboring villages. The programme was organized on 12 December 2016 in which one of the faculty members from Banasthali Vidyapith informed the youth that the process of westernization has taken over the spirit of Indian ethos and it has deviated the youths of the country from their path of Indian ethos and culture. Further, the event also educated them on some general legal problems that one must be careful.

Name of Initiative: Kisan Day Celebration

Date: 23 December 2016

Report:

Farmers constitute the major population of India but they are always uncared and exploited. Banasthali Vidyapith has been working for the rural reconstruction since its inception. To continue with its objective and vision, Banasthali Vidyapith organised a general programme for farmers on 23 December 2016 where they were informed about different aspects of agricultural and the policies of the government. At the end of session they realised that such awareness programmes are very important for them as they not only educate them but they also informed them about the policies of the government.

Name of Initiative: Train the Trainer Session at Bassi Village

Date: 2 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighbouring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women in Bassi Village on 2 January 2017. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Hingotia Village

Date: 2 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes awareness programme at Hingotiya village on 2nd January 2017 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Sobhagpura Village

Date: 12 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Sobhagpura villege, on 12th January 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Ramkrishanpura Village

Date: 18 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Ramkrishanpura villege, on 18th January 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Abbaas Nagar Village

Date: 19 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Abbaas Nagar Village on 19th January 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes in Tonk

Date: 21 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme in Tonk on 21st January 2017 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Cloth Donation Camp /Apaji Vastradaan Shivir

Date: 23 January 2017

Report:

The Banasthali Vidyapith organized Apaji Cloth Donation Camp on 23rd January 2017. The camp was organized in Jagatpura Village where some cloths were donated and distributed amongst the poorest of the poor who cannot afford cloths on themselves. The cloths were distributed amongst the children and some helpless women of the village. The cloth donation camp brought some smile on their face.

Name of Initiative: Quiz Competition for Rural Women

Date: 23 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a quiz competition on the theme of financial literacy on 23 January 2017. Vidyapith has undertaken the project of educating the women of the neighboring villages on an about finance its problems and need. The quiz intended to motivate them to educate themselves on different aspects of financial literacy. The women of the villages were asked questions on the broader theme of financial literacy.

Name of Initiative: Awareness Campaign about Importance of Girl Child

Date: 24 January 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organizes an Awareness Campaign about Importance of Girl Child at Hingotiya Village, on 24th January 2017 to address the problem of reducing the number of girl child. It is an alarming situation that the number of the girl child is increasingly reducing. The skit was performed with a purpose to educate the villagers about the inevitable role that the girl child plays in the growth and development of the society. The skit was highly appreciated by the villagers as it informed them about the role, place and function of the girl child in the society

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Banasthali Aaganbadi

Date: 12 February 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Banasthali Anganbadi, on 12th February 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Doulatpura Village

Date: 19 February 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Doulatpura villege, on 19th February 2017 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Maanpura Village, Jaipur

Date: 21 February 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Maanpura Village on 21st February 2017 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Bhamor Village

Date: 13 March 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Bhamor Village on 13th March 2017 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Train the Trainer Session in Motipura

Date: 23 March 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighboring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women in Motipura on 23rd March 2017. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: ATM Usage Awareness-SBI Banasthali

Date: 10 April 2017

Report:

Some villagers from Baad Churiyaa village were called on 10th April 2017, so that they could be trained and be educated about the use of ATM. One of the faculty members from the department of Management (Finance) educated them on how to use ATM with security code and also shared some basic do's and don'ts with the villagers. After the training, the villagers themselves went to the ATM and used their ATM card so that they may further use it with care and confidence.

Name of Initiative: A Session with Safai Workers of Banasthali Vidyapith

Date: 20 May 2017

Report:

Safai workers hold important place in the co system of any organization. Banaasthali Vidyapith has a very strong and dedicated team of Safai workers who work very hard to keep the campus clean, healthy and livable. However, Banaasthali Vidyapith also realizes that the life of Safai workers is also very precious and therefore they must be counseled properly. An interactive session was organized with Safai workers by the students of Banasthali Vidyapith on 20May 2017, so that there problem can be addressed and they may properly be counseled.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness of Financial and Banking Schemes at Chorpura Village

Date: 22 May 2017

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a Financial and Banking Schemes programme at Chorpura Village on 22nd May 2017 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: Banasthali Vidyapith in Association with SBI Organises a Session on Financial Literacy for the Villagers of Chaturbhujpura

Date: 12 July 2015

Report:

The Banasthali Vidyapith organized a financial awareness programme at Chaturbhujpura Village on 12th July 2015 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: An Informal Meeting with the Villagers Haripura to Discuss the Importance of Girls' Education

Date: 15 July 2015

Report:

It is a common fact that society is composed of male as well as female. Thee negation of one creates disaster and destruction for the growth and development of society. Banasthali Vidyapith in order to address the issues of girl education organized Informal Meeting with the Villagers of Haripura. The students of Banaasthali Vidyapith educated the women of the village on an about the need of girls education.

Name of Initiative: Session for Women Working at Informal Education Centre

Date: 20 July 2015

Report:

The Banasthali Vidyapith organized an interactive session with the villagers to address the need and the problem of women working at different places. The interactive session was organized on 20 July 2015 where the importance of the employment of women folk was discussed. It was also added that society to grow the women folk must also work along with the male population.

Name of Initiative: A Nukkad Natak on Female Foeticide at Hingotiya Village

Date: 30 July 2015

Report:

A Nukkad Natak was played by the students of Banasthali Vidyapith at Hingotiya Village on 20th December 2018 to address the problem of reducing the number of girl child. It is an alarming situation that the number of the girl child is increasingly reducing. The skit was performed with a purpose to educate the villagers about the inevitable role that the girl child plays in the growth and development of the society. The skit was highly appreciated by the villagers as it informed them about the role, place and function of the girl child in the society.

Name of Initiative: A General Awareness Programme at Jagatpura Village

Date: 3 August 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Jagatpura villege, on 03rd August 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Pathshala Jaao Jeevan Banao

Date: 4 August 2015

Report:

Education is an important tool to transform not only the self but also the society. Any attempt to ignore education is to ignore life. Banasthali Vidyapith organized an interactive session on Pathshala Jaao Jeevan Banao on 4 August 2015 where the importance of education was clearly discussed and debated. All students were encouraged to be educated so that they will be able to contribute significantly in the making of a rich society.

Name of Initiative: Session for the Women Working in Banasthali Vidyapith

Date: 10 August 2015

Report:

The Banasthali Vidyapith organized an interactive session with the villagers to address the need and the problem of women working at different places. The interactive session was organized on 10 August 2015 where the importance of the employment of women folk was discussed. It was also added that society to grow the women folk must also work along with the male population.

Name of Initiative: A General Awareness Programme for Neighbouring Villagers at Banasthali Vidyapith

Date: 11 August 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Talav Colony village, on 11th August 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Digital Literacy Session at Suratpura Village in Association with Indian bank

Date: 24 August 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a programme on Digital Literacy for Rural Women at Suratpura Village on 24th August 2015 in order to make the villagers aware about the growth and development in digital technology in the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age. The door to door awareness programme educated the people of the village about the use and misuse of digital technology. They were also cautioned to use the technology very carefully so that they may be able to avoid the possibility of fraud, cheating and reception.

Name of Initiative: Swachh Raho Swastha Raho

Date: 5 September 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a campaign on 5th September 2015 in order to address the issue of cleanliness, health and hygiene. Approximately 35 students participated in the programme and cleaned the vicinity and area around Vani Mandir and conveyed a very strong message amongst the members of the staff who come from the neighboring villages that they should focus at their health, cleanliness and hygiene because they are integral to lead a healthy life. Finally the slogan of the programme was Swachh Raho Swastha Raho.

Name of Initiative: Session at Motipura Village

Date: 09 September 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Motipura village, on 09th September 2015 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Health Camp at Jagatpura Village

Date: 10 September 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a general health check up camp on 10th September 2015 at Jagatpura village. In which Dr Neera Singh examined more than 100 villagers. She treated old women, men, young men, children and ladies who are suffering from different types of disease. Some medicine was also distributed among them. Dr. Neera Singh reported that joint pain, hygiene relate disease, fever etc. are found to be very common among villagers. The camp was also supported by some students of Banasthali Vidyapith

Name of Initiative: Blood Donation Camp

Date: 25 September 2015

Report:

A Blood Donation Camp was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith in association with Apaji Arogya Mandir on 25th September 2015 in which approximately 200 students participated the blood was donated by many students and staff members of Banasthali Vidyapith and the event was successfully concluded.

Name of Initiative: An Informal Session on Child Labour

Date: 28 September 2015

Report:

An Informal discussion was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith on 28th September 2015. The discussion was organized to address an important issue which is quite rampant in the neighboring villages i.e. child labour. The case of child labour is very prominent in the neighboring villages like Banasthali, Hiripura, Motipura, Bhataria, Iodera, Jagatpura, Kishanpura, Daulatpura, Bidoli, Palei, Jujharpura, Trilokpura, Karanpura, Devpura. To address the issue of child labour some important persons from those villages were invited at one place where the ill effects of child labour were discussed. They were encouraged to discourage the practice of child labour in their villages.

Name of Initiative: Session on child Labour at Jodhpuria Village

Date: 2 October 2015

Report:

An Informal discussion was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith at Jodhpuria Village on 02nd October 2015. The discussion was organized to address an important issue which is quite rampant in the neighboring villages i.e. child labour. The case of child labour is very prominent in the neighboring villages like Banasthali, Hiripura, Motipura, Bhataria, Iodera, Jagatpura, Kishanpura, Daulatpura, Bidoli, Palei, Jujharpura, Trilokpura, Karanpura, Devpura. To address the issue of child labour some important persons from those villages were invited at one place where the ill effects of child labour were discussed. They were encouraged to discourage the practice of child labour in their villages.

Name of Initiative: On Farm Trial and Front Line Demonstration

Date: On Different Dates

Report:

Farmers constitute the major population of India but they are always uncared and exploited. Banasthali Vidyapith has been working for the rural reconstruction since its inception. To continue with its objective and vision, Banasthali Vidyapith organized a general programme for farmers where they were informed about different aspects of agricultural and the policies of the government. At the end of session they realized that such awareness programmes are very important for them as they not only educate them but they also informed them about the policies of the government.

Name of Initiative: Commodity Awareness and Extension Activities

Date: 14 October 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a session on Commodity Awareness and Extension Activities on 14 October 2015 where three farmers of the neighboring village were invited and they were made aware of several extension activities and commodity. The session was highly helpful to the people of farmers of neighboring villages as they were trained on different techniques of commodity processing.

Name of Initiative: A General Awareness Session at Bairwa Ki Dhani

Date: 18 January 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Bairwa ki Dhani villege, on 18th January 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Sunara Beed Village

Date: 25 January 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Surana Beed villege, on 25th January 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Toilet Construction

Date: 27-29 January 2016

Report:

Defecation in the open has been one of the major causes of several diseases in India. The problem of defecation is found very rampant in India. To make India Healthy it has been very important to stop people from defecating in the open. Keeping this objective in mind, the students of Banasthali Vidyapith undertook an initiative of reconstructing two Toilets at Primary School, Jagatpura. This effort of Vidyapith has been praised by the villagers, teachers and students of Jagatpura Primary school.

Name of Initiative: Session Taken by the Trainer for Rural Women in Khodiya ki Dhani

Date: 5 February 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighbouring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women in Khodiya ki Dhani on 5 February 2016. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: Session on Financial Literacy for Rural Women at Talav Colony Village

Date: 6 February 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a financial awareness programme at Talav Colony Village on 06th February in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness Session at Nagar Village

Date: 1 March 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized an Awareness Programme on life, health, disease, education were discussed at Nagar village, on 01st March 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the ways and means of leading happy life. The session also highlighted the importance of technology in the life of the people of the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age.

Name of Initiative: Discussion on Child Marriage at Karanpura Village

Date: 1 March 2016

Report:

Child marriage is commonly found among the villagers. To address this issue Banasthali Vidyapith engaged the pilgrims of the Devnarayan Ji mela and informed them about the negative aspects of child marriage. The programme was organized at Karanpura Village on 01st March 25016 in which approximately 40 students and some faculty members from Banasthali Vidyapith took active participation. They engaged the pilgrims and informed them about the negative impact of child marriage not only upon the family and the body of men and women but also on the entire eco system of society. This practice does not allow the growth of mature mind set enhance a sound cultural development. The pilgrims were highly benefited and the expressed their thanks to the faculty members and the students for informing them about the negative aspect of child marriage.

Name of Initiative: Session by the trainer in Dangarthal Village

Date: 20 March 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women at Mukada Baba Ki Dhani on 20 March 2016 in order to make the people of those villages economically rich, they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may under take their own business. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many others villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: Train the Trainer Session for Rural Women at Mukada Baba Ki Dhani

Date: 27 March 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighbouring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women at Mukada Baba Ki Dhani on 27 March 2016. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: Awareness Programme for Rural Women at Baad Churiya Village

Date: 31 March 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighbouring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women at Baad Churiya Village on 31st March 2016. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: Train the Trainer Session in Mundiya Village

Date: 21 April 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighbouring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women at Mundiya Village on 21 April 2016. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: A Nukkad Natak on Female Foeticide in Banasthali Village

Date: 30 July 2014

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organizes an Awareness Campaign about Importance of Girl Child at Banasthali Village, on 30th July 2014 to address the problem of reducing the number of girl child. It is an alarming situation that the number of the girl child is increasingly reducing. The skit was performed with a purpose to educate the villagers about the inevitable role that the girl child plays in the growth and development of the society. The skit was highly appreciated by the villagers as it informed them about the role, place and function of the girl child in the society

Name of Initiative: An Informal Discussion on Girls' Child Labour

Date: 8 Aug 2014

Report:

An Informal discussion was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith on 8th August 2014. The discussion was organized to address an important issue which is quite rampant in the neighboring villages i.e. Girl's child labour. The case of child labour is very prominent in the neighboring villages like Banasthali, Hiripura, Motipura, Bhataria, Iodera, Jagatpura, Kishanpura, Daulatpura, Bidoli, Palei, Jujharpura, Trilokpura, Karanpura, Devpura. To address the issue of child labour some important persons from those villages were invited at one place where the ill effects of child labour were discussed. They were encouraged to discourage the practice of child labour in their villages.

Name of Initiative: Symposium on Maintaining Hygiene for Health

Date: 30 Aug 2014

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a campaign on Swachhata on 30th August 2014 at Banasthali village in order to address the issue of cleanliness, health and hygiene. Approximately 18 students participated in the programme and cleaned the vicinity and area around Vigyan Mandir and conveyed a very strong message amongst the members of the staff who come from the neighboring villages that they should focus at their health, cleanliness and hygiene because they are integral to lead a healthy life. Finally the slogan of the programme was Swachh Raho Swastha Raho.

Name of Initiative: Swachh Raho Swastha Raho

Date: 5 Sep 2014

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a campaign on 5th September 2014 in order to address the issue of cleanliness, health and hygiene. Approximately 35 students participated in the programme and cleaned the vicinity and area around Vani Mandir and conveyed a very strong message amongst the members of the staff who come from the neighboring villages that they should focus at their health, cleanliness and hygiene because they are integral to lead a healthy life. Finally the slogan of the programme was Swachh Raho Swastha Raho

Name of Initiative: An Informal Discussion on Child Labour

Date: 28 Sep 2014

Report:

An Informal discussion was organized by Banasthali Vidyapith on 28th September 2014. The discussion was organized to address an important issue which is quite rampant in the neighboring villages i.e. child labour. The case of child labour is very prominent in the neighboring villages like Banasthali, Hiripura, Motipura, Bhataria, Iodera, Jagatpura, Kishanpura, Daulatpura, Bidoli, Palei, Jujharpura, Trilokpura, Karanpura, Devpura. To address the issue of child labour some important persons from those villages were invited at one place where the ill effects of child labour were discussed. They were encouraged to discourage the practice of child labour in their villages.

Name of Initiative: A Workshop on Skills Development among Women

Date: 5 Oct 2014

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighbouring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women in Banasthali Vidyapith on 23rd March 2017. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: Awareness on Child Marriage

Date: 28 Oct 2014

Report:

Child marriage is commonly found among the villagers. To address this issue Banasthali Vidyapith engaged the pilgrims of the Devnarayan Ji mela and informed them about the negative aspects of child marriage. The programme was organized on 28 October 2014 in which approximately 40 students and some faculty members from Banasthali Vidyapith took active participation. They engaged the pilgrims and informed them about the negative impact of child marriage not only upon the family and the body of men and women but also on the entire eco system of society. This practice does not allow the growth of mature mind set enhance a sound cultural development. The pilgrims were highly benefited and the expressed their thanks to the faculty members and the students for informing them about the negative aspect of child marriage.

Name of Initiative: Awareness on Drug Addiction

Date: 29 Nov 2014

Report:

As the percentage of the young population has been growing rapidly, it has also been reported that they are badly caught in the trap of drug addiction. Banasthali Vidyapith organized an awareness programme with the villagers of Trilokpura Village on 29 November 2014. Some students from Banasthali Vidyapith went to the village and informed them about the negative aspects of drug addiction. They also motivated them to come out of the trap of drug addiction so that they can lead a meaningful and healthy life.

Name of Initiative: An Informal Symposium on the Condition of Old Age People in the Village

Date: 10 December 2014

Report:

In the fast growing, changing and developing world of today, the old age population is somewhere left in the margin. They are left, unattended uncared and isolated. Often, they are left alone to suffer. This has gradually taken the form of a great problem for a society. Banasthali Vidyapith therefore to address the problem of old age people organized an Informal Symposium where the condition of thee old age people was discussed. They were also encouraged to take three present conditions with optimism, courage and confidence.

Name of Initiative: Financial Literacy Train the Trainer Session: Lodha ki Dhanni

Date: 4 Jan 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a financial awareness programme in Banasthali Vidyapith on 04th January 2015 in which the issue of financial literacy was discussed and women were informed about different tips and techniques to attain financial independence. Subsequently, the awareness programme highlighted the terms policies associated with banking sector. The awareness programme also informed the villagers about the viability of financial freedom in the present day situation. The programme emphasized upon the need and methods of financial independence. It encouraged the people of the village to save some money from their income so that the money saved can be used in better ways during their rainy days. The programme was facilitated by some students from Banasthali Vidyapith. After the session, the participants also raised their doubts which were appropriately addressed by the speaker. Finally the villagers expressed their thanks to the team who organized the awareness programme for them.

Name of Initiative: A Lecture on Community Living

Date: 6 Jan 2015

Report:

Banaasthali Vidyapith is known for its multi-religious, multi-cultural, multi-ethnic realities which have helped in enriching the community life of Banaasthali Vidyapith. A lecture to address the community living was organized by Banaasthali Vidyapith on 6 January 2015 where the speaker informed the participants about the rich cultural tradition of Banaasthali Vidyapith. It allows the co-existence of several religions and their practices and it is clearly reflected in its celebration of several cultural festivals. Further, it was also added that the celebration of these cultural activities nurture woman leaders.

Name of Initiative: Train the Trainer Session in Motipura Village

Date: 5 Feb 2015

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith believes in the fact that it cannot grow unless its neighboring villages grow and prosper economically. In order to make the people of those villages economically rich they need some required training so that they can be employed in an organization or they may undertake their own business. Banasthali Vidyapith organized a training program on khadi weaving for the rural women in Motipura on February 5, 2015. The training programme informed the villagers in general and women in particular the method and technique of khadi weaving. Thus the trainer from Banasthali Vidyapith trained many villagers who would further train many other villagers so that they may get some jobs or may start weaving khadi clothes on their own.

Name of Initiative: ATM Usage Awareness-SBI Banasthali

Date: 4 March 2015

Report:

Some villagers from Baad Churiyaa village were called on 04th March 2015, so that they could be trained and be educated about the use of ATM. One of the faculty member from the department of Management (Finance) educated them on how to use ATM with security code and also shared some basic do's and don'ts with the villagers. After the training, the villagers themselves went to the ATM and used their ATM card so that they may further use it with care and confidence.

Name of Initiative: Students of Banasthali Vidyapith Discuss on Widow Remarriage

Date: 5 March 2015

Report:

There are many social evils which are still damaging the growth and development of society, among those social evils; control on widow remarriage is one such evil which has created a great damage to the life of people. Banasthali Vidyapith organized an interactive session with villagers in order to inform them about the positive aspect of widow remarriage.

Name of Initiative: A Session with Safai Workers

Date: 17 March 2015

Report:

Safai workers hold important place in the co system of any organization. Banaasthali Vidyapith has a very strong and dedicated team of Safai workers who work very hard to keep the campus clean, healthy and livable. However, Banaasthali Vidyapith also realizes that the life of Safai workers is also very precious and therefore they must be counseled properly. An interactive session was organized with Safai workers by the students of Banasthali Vidyapith on 17 March 2015, so that there problem can be addressed and they may properly be counseled.

Name of Initiative: A Training Program for Microfinance

Date: 28 April 2015

Report:

Banaasthali Vidyapith has always been working for the financial freedom of the women of the neighbouring villages and for that it has been training them with some important aspects of microfinance. To continue with that Banaasthali Vidyapith organized A Training Program for Microfinance at Motipura Village on April 28, 2015 in which approximately 20 women participated. They were educated on different aspects of microfinance and their relevance for the women in the village.

Name of Initiative: Session for Women Construction Workers

Date: 23 April 2016

Report:

An organization stands on several pillars in which the pillar of economics holds a very strong place and economics is controlled by the means of production and the capital formation. These two realities namely; means of production and the capital formation are attained only through labour which transforms a raw material into a finished product. The labour is nothing but is the invisible hand which is located within the existence of the physical reality of the body. This physical reality of the body is known as workers. Banasthali Vidyapith has always been educating and empowering those workers and for that it has often organized interactive session with them so that they can be informed about their role, contribution and function in the making of a nation at large and a society.

Name of Initiative: General Awareness and Digital Literacy Session Banasthali Village

Date: 24 April 2016

Report:

Banasthali Vidyapith organized a programme on Digital Literacy for Rural Women at Banasthali Village on 24th April 2016 in order to make the villagers aware about the growth and development in digital technology in the present time. The technology has become so pervasive that no aspects of human existence seem untouched with its presence. With the growth of digital technology, all aspects of human life are affected by it. The presence of mobile, internet and all forms of cyber technology, if on the one hand has made the life of the people simple, but on the other it has also complicated it further. There are so many crimes in different forms taking place on the world of web. Therefore there is dire need to make the villagers aware about the negative aspects of digital revolution in the contemporary age. The door to door awareness programme educated the people of the village about the use and misuse of digital technology. They were also cautioned to use the technology very carefully so that they may be able to avoid the possibility of fraud, cheating and reception.

